Re:

Bankruptcy #:
PACSES Case ID:

Dear _____ :

Our records indicate that a payment of $ _____ in your support case was last received on _____. We are aware that you filed for Chapter 13 bankruptcy protection on _____. Please be advised that pursuant to the Bankruptcy code, you remain under an obligation to pay the monthly support amount of $ _____, as provided in your current support order. In addition, you are required to continue to pay the arrears in your support case at the rate of $ _____ per month, unless the arrears are being paid pursuant to your Chapter 13 plan. As the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 allows for dismissal or conversion to Chapter 7 bankruptcy, where the defendant/debtor fails to keep current on the child support obligation after the filing of the bankruptcy petition, the Bankruptcy Court and the Chapter 13 Trustee will be notified should you fail to remain current in paying your support obligation.

If you have any questions regarding your support order, you may call (412) 350-5600 Monday - Thursday, from 9:00 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. until 3:00 p.m., and on Fridays, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. for assistance. If you have any questions regarding you bankruptcy petition or how the bankruptcy laws affect child support, please contact your bankruptcy attorney.

Sincerely,

Allegheny County Family Division
